2021/22 MEMBERSHIP DUES

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

INSURANCE

- For definitions and age limits on membership categories, please visit Rugby Canada
- For all annual memberships, Rugby Canada coverage commences on August 1, 2021, or the date of members' registration, whichever is the later date. That is, you must be registered to have insurance coverage for your participation in any rugby activities. If you're not registered, you're not insured.
- 12-week membership has insurance coverage for the 12-weeks of program delivery as determined by the Member Organisation. 12-week memberships and programs will be managed on the Sportlomo Events Platform. Administrators must be sure to enter the 'start date' and 'end date' of the program to ensure proper insurance coverage for their members.
- Only those registered as Board Member will be covered under the Member Organization's Directors & Officers Insurance, and this Insurance is only valid if the Member Organization is a registered entity in the Province in British Columbia. Masters Player category is only valid for training and matches adhering to Law Variations for Masters Rugby.
- Players participating in an older age-grade must upgrade their registration to the higher (older) membership type. That is, if a U14 player is participating in a U16 competition, they must hold the membership for the U16 competition that they are participating in.
- Members who participate in multiple roles must be registered in all relevant membership types to have insurance coverage for each of those activities. Only the highest Rugby Canada due will be charged,

OTHER CHARGES

- Processing Fees are $2.00 per registration + 3.25% applied to total dues, incl. any Club dues added, and charged at checkout.

REFUNDS

- The Registration system will only automate refunds made within two-weeks of an individual's registration date, in accordance with Rugby Canada's Refund Policy and BC Rugby's Refund Policy.

ON REQUEST

- A social membership category is available in the registration system for Member Organisations to use. This category has no insurance coverage, nor does it have any direct affiliation with Rugby Canada or BC Rugby.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Member Organizations are annually charged Directors & Officers Insurance. This is invoiced separately. For 2021/22, the charge has increased to $170. If all the Club's Directors are currently registered under a charged individual category or if the Club can provide proof of alternative D&O insurance acquired, this fee is waived upon request.
- Due to the ongoing COVID pandemic, BC Rugby prices represent maximum amounts that would be charged. If PHO restrictions impede resumption of leagues, prices will be reduced accordingly.
- Age-Grade League prices listed assume 15-a-side teams. When a League consists of both 7s/10s and 15s, Clubs would only be charged based on the number of 15s teams competing.
- Fees for officiating are a separate charge and will be invoiced by BC Rugby.
